By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Dr. B. M. Gilden, Surgeon Dentist, has removed his office to the rooms formally occu-pied by Dr. J. Mott Smith, over the drug store of Dr. Strehz, at the corner of Fort and Hotel streets. Oh mamma! If you want me to be stylish I

Islands, is to undergo some necessary repairs. The work we understand will be done by Mesers. Tibbetts & Sorrenson, ship-builders of this city. Messrs T. R. Foster & Co's new steamer the Iris, had arrived at San Francisco on the 10th Inst. rom Port Ludlow, under sall, and after discharging her cargo of lumber, would receive her machinery, &c., on board and be fitted up for the passage to Honoinsh. Capt. Godfrey expected to leave San Francisco for this port with the Iris about the satter part of this mouth. The barkentine Discovery, which arrived on Sunday morning, the 18th inst., brought 72 very fine mules, consigned to different parties, also fine breeding marcs consigned to Mesars J. T. & Waterhouse, of this city. The stock when lafded -with the exception of having the hair rubbed off, by being justled about-were in fine condition. to Something new for the ladies, a large in-

The disgusting practice of the Adversiver in taking exceptions to the mistakes of "the intelligent comp," spart from its being a pedantic dis-play of superficial information, is conclusive (v)dence of its gross ignorance of the essential requisites belonging to respectable journalism. "Quem Deus vult prius pedere dementat."

RAIN.-During the past week we have had on this island a few drenching showers-falling principally at night-with pretty high winds. Our advices from the windward islands are that rain has fallen is great quantities during the past week or ten days, which is cheering news. The rate-fall so lar the present year has been very propitious, and large crops of sugar and other produce must be the

By the card of Captain Kibling, which we publish in another column of this issue, it will be seen that he has so far recovered as to be able to walk around. We had the pleasure of a visit from the captain on Monday morning last, and rejoice to know that he is recovering fast from his injuries occasioned by the accident at Koloa, Kanai, a few weeks ago, the particulars of which we published

We learn from Messrs, Wilder & Co. that there will be no deviation from the published time table of the steamer Likelike in favor of Kamehameha Day, the 11th of June. The steamer will sail promptly, as usual, for Hilo and way ports, on her regular day, Tuesday, the 10th proximo. Many persons had supposed that the Likelike would be delayed on that occasion until Wednesday evening the 11th proximo. On the circuit trip of the 2d of June the steamer will arrive in Honolulu on her return on Sunday morning the 5th proximo as usual.

The nightly congregation of young boodums of both sexes, on Smith's bridge, is a pulsance that should be abated, and calls for prompt action or the part of the police authorities. The gathering at this locality on last Saturday evening was ex-"roughs," very offensive to respectable people. If this state of affairs is longer permitted, the efficiency of the police force will certainly be questioned, a circumstance to be greatly regretted, and injurious to the heretofore good reputation enjoyed by them as faithful "guardians of the night." We hope we may not have occasion to effect to this uniform. may not have occasion to refer to this subject again

We deeply regret to learn that the condition of Mr. A. Hutchinson, of Naalchu, Kau, Hawall, when the Likelike left, was very critical, and that fears were entertained by his friends that he could not recover. We trust however that those cond not recover. We trust however that those fears may not prove correct, imamuch as Mr. H. is one of the most overgetic as well as one of our best citizons. The death of such a man would be an almost irreparable loss to this kingdom, for it is just such men as he who make a country prosperous. We learn also that the man whose collarbone was broken by the same accident with Mr. H., and who sustained other injuries has since died. Thus in all probability three valuable lives will have been ascriffeed by the sad accident, the particulars of which we gave list week.

ticniars of which we gave last week. QUICE PASSAGE.-The fine British bark Lalla Rookb, Hender, Master, and consigned to the house of Messrs G. W. We learn from our Eastern exchanges that col. C. H. Judd who is now in the United States, has fulfilled a commission and purchased some fine Kentucky borses for His Majesty. These, with the blood stock in the shape of cattle already on His Majesty's ranch on this Island, will be a valuable acquisition to the Islands, and in good time bring their fruits in the improvement of our horses and cattle.

THE STEAMER LEHUA. - This new addition to our steam coasting fleet was, according to advices per Australia, to sall from San Francisco on the 13th per Australia, to sail from San Francisco on the 15th rost, and may be looked for on Saturday afternoon or Sanday morning next. The name of this steamer was, until Monday last, a profound secret. The owners, Messra. Wilder & Co., had previously offered a free pass for one year to all who should correctly guess the name of the steamer before the 19th, and of course letters poured in from all parts of the 1stands with all sorts of names, but out of the 1stands with all sorts of names, but out of the 1st there were only three successful competitions. of the Islands with all sorts of names, but out of the lot there were only three successful competi-tors, viz: Mrs. Mele Rose, Mr. S. P. Wahnenul, and Mr. Kuehnain. The "passes" gotten up in Mr. Hassinger's best style of chirography, are on exhibition in Messrs. Whitney & Robertson's win-dow. The steamer is named after a small uninhab-ited Island called Lehus lying due north of Nilhau, and nearly west from Kausi.

DISASTROUS SHIPWRECK .- By the arrival of the hooner Vivid, Captain English, from Fanning's schooner Vivid, Captain English, from Fanning's Island, on the 14th inst., we have news of the total loss of the British bark Crosby, Captain Robert Buchanan. The facts are as follows: The Crosby lett Shanghal on the 15th of March for Fanning's Island, intending to load guano at the latter place. On the morning of the 14th of April, sighted Fandral Course to light Island, intending to load guano at the latter place. On the morning of the 14th of April, sighted Fanning's Island about 4 b'clock. Owing to light winds and a very strong current setting in shore, the vessel, despite all human effort, was carried upon the reef on the windward side of the Island, and owing to the heart words. owing to the heavy swell soon became a total wreck. A short time after the Crosby struck the reef she broke in two and passed out of sight. All hands took to the boats soon after, as it was evident the vessel would soon go to pieces, and were safely landed about three. fely landed about three hours after the disaste The captain and fourteen of the Crosby's crew came as passengers on the Vivid to this port. The Crosby we learn was a fine iron bark, only about nine meeths old

A ROTAL PRESENT.-Through the politeness of Mr. Wenner, jeweller of this city, we had ness of Mr. Wenner, jeweller of this city, we had the pleasure of seeing the very handsome necklace made by him, on the order of His Majesty, which has been forwarded as a present to His Royal Highness Prince Henry, son of the Crown Prince of Germany, who recently visited this kingdom in His Imperial Majesty's War-ship Prinz Adalbert. The neckince consists of 21 kukui nuts connected with gold bands, forming a segment of a circle, the center piece is oreamented with the royal German
with the insignla of the Order of the Red Eagle, with the loseription "Sincere et constanter," these with the inscription "Sincere et constanter," these pieces are enameled to red and surmounted with a gold crown, the alternate ones to right and lett with sceptor and sword, all forming a most beautiful piece of jewelry. The workmanship is faultiess and reflects great credit upon Mr. Wenner and his workmanship. working. The box exclosing the necklace wa made by Mr. Gertz, and is composed of fifteen dif-ferent kinds of wood, which is also a fine piece of work equally creditable, and showing that these gentlemen are masters of their trade. Honolulu has great reason to feel proud of the presence of such skilled mechanics. The neckince is not only a skilled mechanics. The neckince is not only a handsome piece of handiwork of our own mechanics, but is a graceful compliment from His Majesty King Kalakaua to the representative of two of the greatest crown heads of modern times, and will no doubt be appreciated.

THE RACE AT KAPIOLANI PARK -- In commo with many others we went to Kaplolani Park on Wednesday afternoon, to witness a contest of were disappointed. The race was a short affair, inasmuch as Mr. Agnew's mare "Baby" distanced her competitor "Black Prince," owned by Mr. S. Magnin, on the first heat. Mr. Agnew drove his own mare and "Black Prince," owned by Mr. S. Magnin, on the first heat. Mr. Agnew drove his own mare and "Black Prince," was driven by Mr. J. T. Chayter. Everybody was disappointed at the result of the race except the horse jockies, who seemed to understand the lay of the ropes on the occasion. There had congregated at the Park a large concourse of our citizens to see the race, which came to so sudden and unexpected a hait. As soon as the race was declared over many persons left the course, not so however with a large portion who had gone out to have a little fun. The latter soon improvised a series of scrub races, both with horses and bipeds of the genus homo, and the result was lots of fun for all hands. On thise scrub races the betting ran freely for small sums, and the fun was kept up till 5 o'clock P. M., when the gates were closed and those present were reluctantly compelled to retire from the scenes of joilty and mirth. To those who were disappointed on Wednesday last we say, go to the Park on the lith of June next, and all will be pleased with some good running and trotting races and no mistake. The best horses on the Islands will be present on that occasion, and the racing will be present on that occasion, and the racing will be present on that occasion, and the racing will be present on that occasion, and the racing will be present on that occasion, and the racing will be present on that occasion, and the racing will be present on that occasion. speed between two of our Honolulu nags, and that occasion, and the racing will be all that the lovers of good turl sports desire.

In Memoriam .- On Saturday the 17th Inst., Sister Cenis, a native of France, and daughter of one of the Sous-Prefet of the latter country, died at the convent in this city, sged 76 years. The deceased was one among the first of the devoted band of nons who came to these Islands many years ago, who gave her whole life to the performance of deeds of Christian charity and love for her species. deeds of Christian charity and love for her species. She was a devout consistent Christian lady, possessed of a heart filled to overflowing with benevolence, and devotion to her religion and the discharge of every Christian daty. She was a lady of fine culture, and for a number of years was one of the teachers in the school for young ladies and children attached to the convent. Sister Cenis was the oldest nun or these Islands. She attended to her religious duties up to Friday night last, when she was attacked with congestive chills, from which she never railled, till death came to her relief, and she was called to go up higher by the Great Master whom she had so faithfully served during a long and useful lite. The death of so useful and devoted a woman as Sister Cenis is a great loss to the church, of which she was a shining light, and the institution of which she was a cherished and invaluable member, as well as the community at large but their loss is her gain; and now that her work on earth was so well as the community at large—but their loss is her gain; and now that her work on earth was so well done, she has gone to reap the reward of a well spent life. Truly, "blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for their end is peace." The deceased's remains were buried in the Roman Catholic Cemetery on Monday the 19th lost, according to the rites and ceremonics of cording to the rites and ceremonies of the church, and were followed to their list resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, but who mourn not as those who have no hope, but who have a living hope that the resurrection morn will reveal the bidden mysteries of a Saviour's love.
